ARIZONA HONORS FALLEN CORRECTIONAL OFFICER
Flags to Fly at Half Staff

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano has announced that all flags at state buildings will fly at half staff Wednesday, October 8, in honor of Arizona Department of Corrections Officer Douglas Falconer, who died October 1 at the age of 46.

Falconer, of Globe, passed away while working with an inmate fire crew to put out a fire in the Havasu National Wildlife Refuge. He is survived by his wife. Funeral services are Wednesday.
